The Girl Graduate and Her Career.

It would be interesting to know, when one attends the Commencement exercises of a college for women how many of these fair and gifted B. S. propose to settle down at home and lead the simple life. In many cases, their future is amply provided for. The family feel they need the daughter's presence. Yet most of the girls seem to think some active and bread winning career is inevitable.

The next thing often seems an anti-climax. After studying the literature, philosophy and art of the ages, the learned graduate may settle down to the routine employment of operating a typewriter. It is useful work. It may be quite as remunerative as the overcrowded profession of school teaching. But four years of classic literature scarcely seems necessary in preparation therefor.

The modern educated girl does not seem happy to settle down at home, particularly if she comes from a small town or country village where society is simply organized and highly educated people not numerous. Thereby the atmosphere of youth and brightness is frequently removed from the home of the old folks.

But it is a normal enough instinct that women should take their place in the working and producing world. Idling around home, trying to fill up the days with little touches of art and music added to the family seems no life work to a great many ambitious young women.

The feeling is sometimes expressed, when educated girls go to work, that they take employment away from men, so that nothing is added to the world's work. Yet no man worth anything loses by competition. If he loses his job as salesman or book-keeper, let him quit trying to earn his living at clean-hand jobs, and go out and dig in the fields. If he puts his brains as well as his muscle into it, one more efficient food producer is added to the world, as the result of the woman's entering business life.

The Origin of Sports.

To the ordinary observer, the sight of a jolly crowd of people at a ball game is a pleasant one. The antics of humorous or enthusiastic coaches, the yells of the crowd and the air of a general romp makes the world seem like a very jolly place. Scenes like these seem a wholesome offset to the toilsome sides of life. Many a workingman's week is brightened.

But there are some persons to whom this philosophy does not appeal. Many Socialists argue that all this absorption in sports is worse than time wasted. It is a wicked device of capital, to divert the working people from interest in and attention to their wrongs.

According to their theory, popular sports were devised in medieval or ancient times, as a device to quell popular disorders. The leaven of democracy was beginning to work. The kings and emperors saw that they must have an outlet for growing unrest. So they devised popular festivals, holidays and athletic competitions. These took up popular energy, which would otherwise have gone into rioting, revolution and destruction of the established order. Baseball and other sports, it is argued, are but the present day perpetuation of this trick of the moneyed classes to keep the working people in order. Could the ball games and other sports but be abolished, our people would stay at home, meditate on their wrongs, and raise and overturn the classes that enslave them.

With this philosophy of gloom, the average man can have but little sympathy. As a matter of fact, the capitalist of to-day is not over friendly to baseball. The office boys and the stenographers have too many grandmothers' funerals during the season. Also it is mighty hard to run the plant after the hour when the when the game is called.

Probably nothing makes a man more normal, more better able to see things in a common sense way, than to get out into the open air and "holler" and forget his troubles.

Child Life In Vacation.

For many weeks school children long for their annual summer holiday. They dream of the days when they shall once more wander free from all restraints. Yet as a matter of fact, many of them spend their time hanging around and asking their mothers what they shall do next.

The lawless and irresponsible freedom of vacation is a detriment to many children. They become petulant if asked to give an hour a day to little tasks for the family convenience. Yet they are all able to take long jaunts and play incessantly in the sun. Children that seem perfectly well and self controlled in the regular discipline of school term, often become irritable and nervous in vacation, at a time when they are supposed to be receiving benefit from out-door life and mental relaxation.

It is the opinion of educators and social workers that the modern child has too little to do. In modern town life, there may be no task left for them to perform. The custom of regular work seems to have gone out of fashion. One child frets if required to mow the lawn or sweep the walks while the other children are roaming the streets.

A High School principal was speaking the other day of the bad effects of the loafing habit on the older children. He left it so keenly that he got the boys of his school to agree to pay a fine of five cents each time they were seen loafing around street corners by a teacher. The assessment was paid to the athletic association of the school, so all felt good natured about it. It practically cured the street loafing by the boys of that school.

The trouble with the idea was that it applied only on Saturdays and after school during term time. During summer vacation, teachers scattered and the young folks could hang around the streets to their hearts content. But parents may well consider the suggestion as a vacation policy. A little regular work for school pupils during vacation will often save the younger children from getting over tired at strenuous plays, and will help prepare the older ones for more serious responsibilities later on.

Read The News.

We call attention this week to our advertising columns. It will pay you to give them careful perusal. This much must be admitted in favor of the advertiser. He wants your business, he comes into the open to bid for it, he puts his prices down in black and white where you can see what they are, he gives you his name and number and you will find him at the door ready to welcome you. The generous advertiser is invariably the generous fellow. He bubbles over with enthusiasm and when you meet him you feel like you had come in contact with an invigorating breeze right from the sea.

Run 'Em In!

It is up to our town officials to look into the violation of ordinances touching on automobiles more closely than they have been accustomed. We believe that the vast majority of automobile owners have some idea as to where the use of their machines encroach the public, but there are a few who seem to think that the town sits up and takes pride in them and the amount of noise they can make, the extent to which they can go in breaking the speed ordinance, and the utter disregard they have for the rights of others.

LABOR BOARD AVERTS PAPER MILL STRIKES.

The War Labor Board has averted the strike of the pulp and paper workers, called for May 1, in the plant of the International Paper Company, which manufactures 60 per cent. of the American consumption, and started toward cancellation of difficulties involving American commercial telegraphers and New York harbor freight handlers.

An eight-hour day and an increased scale of pay demanded by the paper workers were taken under consideration by the Board, upon an agreement between union officials and employers that the Board's adjustment would be made before July 1, and that wage increases, if granted, would date from May 1. In the meantime the Federal Trade Commission will consider the awards in fixing prices for paper.

The nice thing about the dollars you put into Liberty Bonds is that they don't have to be trained to fight.

"The way I've improved while taking this one package of Tanlac Rheumatism Treatment is remarkable and I believe that one more package will rid me completely and permanently of my rheumatism," said Mr. Jackson.

"All the folks in my neighborhood know how bad my rheumatism has been. I've had it for more than a year and was down in bed for four weeks. This Tanlac Rheumatism Treatment has helped me wonderfully.

"My aunt, Mrs. R. George, 3129 West Chestnut street, Louisville, is taking Tanlac Rheumatism Treatment, too, and it is proving just as remarkably beneficial in her case.

THE NECESSITY OF HATRED.

The critic who says Americans, if taught to hate the Germans, would become what they are, offers a blanket insult to his countrymen. Neither hate nor a miracle could effect such a change. An apple may become absolutely rotten; but a rotten apple is not limburger by a thousand miles.

The Germans have acted in such a manner as to deserve the everlasting hatred of every one who is fit to call himself a man. Let them be hated of every one who is fit to call himself a man. Let them be hated, not for to-day and to-morrow, but for all time. Germans style themselves super-men, but euphemism leaves the polecat what he is and ever will be—a living link.

To teach hate of everything German is not only your privilege, it is your duty. In this country we build sewers for such things as German "kultur." Anything that savors even remotely, of "turn the other cheek," business during this war or afterward, is as out of place as "Rock of Ages" sung at a mass meeting in hell.

When this war shall have been fought to a finish, and that finish a complete victory for the Allies—whether it takes one year or twenty—there will be some, of course, who will purr, "Come back into the fold, Fritz!" Yes; but it ought to be the fold of a boa constructor that would press the bullying, lying, thieving, raping German into the shapeless pulp he is trying to make of all who prefer attar of roses to the reeking stench of pan-Germanism.

This is no time for a bullet and a prayer. Give us an undying hatred backed by two bullets and a manly man.

GOVERNMENT WANTS PHOTOS AND DRAWINGS.

The Government wishes to secure for immediate use for intelligence purposes, photographs, drawings and descriptions, half-tone productions and postals of bridges, buildings, towns and localities now occupied by the German forces in France, Belgium and in Luxembourg, and likewise in that portion of Germany lying west of a line running north and south through Hamburg. This material is to be used for military purposes.

Before Germany began this war she had drawings of every part of the world. Foundations for her guns were already laid in Belgium. She did this by means of buying tracts of land on which it was purported that factories would be erected, but these were used for the foundations for guns for the storming of the cities of Belgium. The rest of the world, rocked in the cradle of pacifism, never dreamed that every inch of territory was being marked off by Germany for conquest. Therefore, no attempt was made to keep the Germans from getting all the drawings and photographs they wanted. The other nations of the world in the meantime never thought about getting information of a like nature about Germany.

The Allies do not want to drop bombs on cities of Germany which are not defended or have no garrison or munition factories. It is not their desire to murder innocent women and children as the Germans are now doing by their long-range guns in Paris. What the Allies want is intelligence of bridges, forts, depots and the like which aid Germans in carrying on the war.

If Willard and Fulton must fight why not stipulate that the purse must be presented in the form of Liberty Bonds?

SIMPLICITY IN MEN'S CLOTHES TO BE STYLE.

The days of the male "clothing slacker" are numbered, according to Charles F. Wetzel, president of the National Association of Merchant Tailors of America, who has sent out an appeal to the tailors of the country to eliminate all unnecessary embellishments on men's clothing. The appeal followed a visit by Mr. Wetzel to the Commercial Economy Board of the Council of National Defense at Washington.

"The day for 'nifty' styles has passed," said Mr. Wetzel, "and it behooves every man in this country who wishes to help the Government in conservation measures, and at the same time to be well dressed, to see to it that only garments made along lines of the utmost simplicity are worn. The keynote for all apparel is simplicity, and it is just this that the Washington officials are advocating."

Among the eliminations from men's clothing recommended are: Belts on coats, cuffs on sleeves, patch pockets on sack coats, overcoats and vests; pocket flaps, double-breasted sack coats and vests; tassel loops on trousers peg top trousers.

THEY GO TOGETHER.

Perhaps it was accidental and perhaps it was intentional that the sum which the government asks shall be raised through War Savings and Thrift Stamps should be exactly the same sum which it is expected will be spent during the year on our ship building program.

But, accidental or intentional, it is significant and appropriate. The War Savings campaign is not intended for children alone, but for children wage earners and folks of the so-called middle class. Upon its children and upon its folks in the middle walk of life does any nation depend for its existence. History has proven that over and over again.

It is most appropriate, therefore, that the War Savings campaign funds should be the same as the funds needed to carry out the ship building program. For upon our ship building program, everything else as concerns America's part in this war depends.

Buy War Savings Stamps and release labor. Release labor, speed up transportation, and speed up war manufacturers. Buy War Savings Stamps and provide the money to build the ships, to carry the supplies to back up the boys "over there." Ships are the keystone of America's victory. War-Savers are the backbone of the nation. Ships and War-Savers are yoked together.

COUNCIL OF DEFENSE FAVORS SCHOOL DISTRICT ORGANIZATIONS.

In a statement urging the creation of "Community councils" the Council of National Defense cites these advantages of the school district as a unit of community organization:

The school district is small enough to permit individual contact, and is non-political.

The schoolhouse supplies a meeting place in each district, and in many schools includes domestic science, manual training and other facilities.

The school district reaches children and parents alike, and in the cities the school is, to a large extent, already in touch with the alien population.

The school is an established center of information and education.

The school principal or faculty provides a tried agency through whose assistance community organization can be quickly effected.

The school district, with the schoolhouse as its center, is already a social community, especially in farm districts.

UNCEASING MISERY

Some Paris Kidney Sufferers Get Little Rest or Comfort.

There is little sleep, little rest, little peace for many a sufferer from kidney trouble. Life is one continual round of pain. You can't rest at night when there's kidney backache. You suffer twinges and "stabs" of pain, annoying urinary disorders, lameness and nervousness. You can't be comfortable at work with darting pains and blinding dizzy spells. Neglect these ailments and serious troubles may follow. Begin using Doan's Kidney Pills at the first sign of disorder. Thousands have testified to their merit.

Proof of merit in Paris testimony: Phillip M. Heller, proprietor meat market, 722 Main street, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills a few times in the past and have been greatly benefited. At times my back was weak and lame and the kidney secretions passed too frequently, making me get up at night. I have used a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at those times and they have always rid me of the complaint. I think they are a splendid medicine and gladly recommend them."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Heller had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. (adv)

THE LATONIA RACES.

Conforming both to the spirit and letter of the daylight-saving program General Manager John Hachmeister of the Latonia and Douglas Park race tracks in Kentucky, announces that the hour for the running of the opening race each afternoon during the approaching season of spring and summer racing at the two tracks mentioned will be 2:30 o'clock. This will correspond to 1:30 o'clock under the old time arrangement which the new day-light-saving schedule has temporarily supplanted. Under the new schedule the time for the running of the seven races that will make up the daily program at the tracks mentioned will be like this: First race, 2:30; second race, 3:00; third race, 3:30; fourth race, 4:00; fifth race, 4:30; sixth race, 5:00; seventh race, 5:30.

The racing program will thus be completed at an hour each afternoon corresponding to 4:30 o'clock under the former time schedule, which will leave patrons of the track some three or four hours of daylight to devote to their war gardens or such other purposes as they may elect.

In arranging the programs for the racing each day, Manager Hachmeister purposes to run the most important races of the day towards the end of the program, so that those who may be unable to reach the track in the early part of the forenoon can go to the course as late as four o'clock and still be sure of enjoying the principal events of the day.

THE SLACKER MUST GO.

They have the kind of spirit in Paducah and Bowling Green that will win the war. Every telephone pole is a soldier bearing a placard with the slogan, "Slackers Must Go to Work or Fight," and every citizen is a member of a Vigilance Committee to back up the placards.

This put the slackers to working in Paducah and Bowling Green or in the army camps somewhere in America. A Vigilance Committee in Paris can do the same thing. The army now needs man power, and so does the farmer, and commercial activities will be demoralized for lack of man power unless the slackers and dodgers are put to working or fighting. Go after them!

COL. KELLER ANDERSON, NOTED KENTUCKIAN, DEAD IN MEMPHIS.

Col. Keller Anderson, formerly of Cynthiana, died at his home in Memphis, Tenn., suddenly from heart disease on April 24. Col. Anderson was born in Cynthiana on September 21, 1842. He was a member of Capt. Joe Desha's company in the Confederate Army.

After the war he lived for a while in Little Rock, Ark., and removed to Memphis in 1871. During the Spanish-American war he was Colonel of the 2nd Tennessee, and was stationed in the Philippine for two years. He was a General of the State troops of Tennessee, and served conspicuously during the coal troubles in that State.

He was married to Miss Jean Robertson, of Lagrange, Ark., on Feb. 11, 1913. He is survived by his wife, a daughter, Jean Keller Anderson, and a son, Lieut. Claude B. Anderson, who is now stationed at Camp Jackson, Columbia, South Carolina. A grandson, Claude B. Anderson, Jr., is a cadet at West Point Military Academy.

Col. Anderson, who is well remembered by our older citizens, was a brother of Mrs. Keller Thomas, of Paris, and an uncle of Mrs. Wm. G. Talbott, of near Paris.

Col. Anderson was a daring and intrepid officer. In 1862, when the war fever was at its height in Paris, Anderson, in spite of warnings, climbed the cupola of the old Bourbon county court house, and nailed a bright new Confederate flag to the weather vane. Federal sympathizers fired several shots at him as he was descending, but the brave fellow was unhurt and made his escape in safety to the Confederate lines. The incident created intense excitement at the time. The flag remained up two days, when it was removed.

WOMEN IN THE WAR SAVINGS CAMPAIGN.

Forty-two States have made reports in reference to the work of women in connection with W. S. S. Some State Directors report that the success of the campaign to date in their States has depended largely upon the work of women. Others report that the women have responded whenever called upon, but that no effort has been made to organize or systemize the work. Still other State Directors have failed absolutely in securing or even asking for the support of the women.

The National Committee feels that not only should the women of the various States be encouraged to take part in the campaign through their own clubs and organizations already established, but that the work for them should be carefully outlined, putting them in charge of special committees and definite and specific lines of work adopted.

Good Style.

Sov Act Includes Women.

Congress has amended the espionage law, making it apply to enemy alien women as well as men. In investigating the activity of spies in this country the department of justice came to the conclusion that women are being used as agents of Germany almost as widely as men.

If there are any Germans who are not Huns, let them prove it by acting like human beings and renouncing and denouncing their Hun masters. Those who are caught doing Hun work must expect to be wiped out; theirs is the choice and theirs the responsibility. The allies are acting as the scourge of God, in the righteous task of ridding the world of the Hun.

The most dangerous animal at large is not the pacifist, nor the traitor, nor even the active alien enemy. These can be dealt with. One knows where to have them. But can be done with the "apathist," as he has aptly been called—the man who is not disloyal, but who still conceives the war to be "3,000 miles away" and none of his particular business? There are still a good many of him; a dead weight, holding back much of community war work, and influencing legislation. What can be done to wake him up?

Bourbon Red Cross Chapter Scores At the Race Meet.

On May 1 and 2, a group of our most efficient housekeepers served luncheon and refreshments in the club house at the Lexington race track.

In addition to sustaining Bourbon county's reputation for "the best ever," $230 was cleared for the Red Cross Chapter.

We are justly proud that Bourbon county far exceeded its quota of Liberty Bonds, but did YOU buy one? You can't boast until Uncle Sam is borrowing from you. A War Saving Stamp or a "Baby Bond" is within the reach of everybody.

When the final count is made every loyal Bourbon county woman will own W. S. Stamps.

Save and Lend.

The very best friend that you own is coming to-day or to-morrow. To ask for a bit of a loan. Of all you can gather and borrow. You know what he's wanting it for; You aren't too fond of the Kaiser; You know he'll repay it and more—So lend it, and don't be a miser!

Your friend is your Uncle Sam. Who saves you from being a martyr; You know he's as mild as a lamb. But when he must fight, he's a Tartar! There's billions that have to be spent

To make him a two-fisted biter; You know he'll return every cent—Then aid him, and don't be a quitter!

Oh, buy every stamp that you can! Don't question and haggle and patter!

Your Uncle Sam's a generous man, And safe as the Rock of Gibraltar! He's asking no more than his due; He needs every soul for his backer; He's working and fighting for you—Then help him and don't be a slacker!

—Arthur Guiterman.

Roll each piece as tight as possible and fasten with two toothpicks. Brown well on both sides in hot butter or substitute. Cover the birds about ¾ with water and simmer in slow oven about one hour.

The Art Club will hold the last meeting of the season at 2:30 p. m. Saturday, May 11.

INVITATION EXTENDED OFFICERS TO VISIT PARIS.

Through Mayor E. B. January who is one of the most earnest workers for the institution, an invitation has been extended to the officers and children of the Odd Fellows Home at Lexington to visit Paris on June 1. The invitation includes the members of the Boys' Band, who will give a concert in the court house yard. Transportation arrangements have been made for one hundred children. A free will offering will be taken for the benefit of the Home.

REAL ESTATE DEALS.

Through the Paris Realty Co., Mrs. James Porter, of Louisville, sold last week to Mr. G. Monroe Mansfield, her cottage on South Main street, adjoining the Templin Lumber Co.'s property for $3,800. Mr. Mansfield bought the home as an investment.

The old brick house on Pleasant street, adjoining the home of Mrs. John A. Schwartz, occupied for many years by Mr. and Mrs. John McGrain, has been razed, and a modern bungalow will be erected on the lot by Mr. Wm. Clarke. The excavation work is now in progress. The building just torn down was over one hundred years old. Former Mayor John T. Hinton was born there eighty-one years ago.

The real estate market in Paris is again active, and the agencies have daily inquiries for desirable city property. Investment purchasers are on the lookout for bargains and property is changing hands at prices fully as high as two and three months ago.

Harris & Speakes, acting for the owners, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Brannon, of Lexington, sold Saturday to Mr. George W. Wilder, of the L. & N., two acres of vacant land facing on Winnie street and Jackson Park, for $600. Mr. Wilder will cut the property into town lots to be sold to colored people.

Mr. Harry Mitchell, of Paris, purchased Saturday of Thos. Bryant, two lots on Marshall street, containing about ¾ acres, at a private price. Mr. Mitchell has gone in for agriculture and is cultivating a large acreage of tobacco and corn on his farm near Sideview, in Montgomery county.

Auctioneer M. F. Kenney sold at the court house door in this city yesterday morning for Master Commissioner O. T. Hinton, about eight acres of unimproved land belonging to Martin Connors, to Dr. D. S. Henry, of Paris, for $297.50 per acre. On Saturday, Mr. Kenney sold for Master Commissioner Hinton the Bridget Cain property in East Paris, to Mr. John Cain, Sr., for $735.

GEORGETOWN COLLEGE LOSES TWO PROFESSORS TO WAR.

After the Commencement exercises in June, Georgetown College will lose two of its ablest professors, who will both go into Y. M. C. A. war work. Prof. D. E. Fogle, head of the modern languages department, is already spending half of each week as an educational secretary at Camp Zachary Taylor, and Prof. Robt. T. Hinton, formerly of Paris, hopes to begin overseas work June 1, as a recreation secretary in the Y. M. C. A. army work. The Georgetown News says of Prof. Hinton, whose brother, Mr. C. O. Hinton, is now a Y. M. C. A. secretary at Camp Zachary Taylor:

"Prof. Hinton's loss to the College will be a serious one, as in addition to being head of the biology department here, he is the director of athletics, and one of the most successful coaches in the State. The Y. M. C. A. has made numerous offers to both men, but neither thought best to leave the College until the present term is over.

"Coach Hinton's place as coach will be taken, in foot ball, by Clayton Thomason, who has been assistant coach for a number of seasons."

CAN YOU WONDER NOW AT COST?

Many people wonder why the printer should make what they consider an exorbitant charge for getting out printed matter. Yet it is not extortion, but a mere matter of self-preservation that compels the printer to advance his charges to a point where he can make a reasonable profit.

The following card received from one of the largest paper manufacturing concerns in the world, partly explains the matter:

"Cincinnati, O., May 1, 1918. "Owing to the very unusual conditions at the present time, all paper manufacturers have withdrawn prices on account of the increased cost of production. Consequently we are forced to withdraw all prices.

"We will require several days to revise prices, based on to-day's cost, and until this is accomplished, we of necessity are obliged to ask you to request quotations on your requirements.

"Assuring you of our appreciation of past favors and hoping for your continued confidence and co-operation, we remain," etc.

B-4 FIRE Insure with W.O. HINTON & SON, Agts

FIRE DESTROYS HOTEL: GUESTS HAVE NARROW ESCAPE.

The Scottville Hotel at Scottville, Ky., was destroyed by fire Friday morning. Fire originated in the kitchen. Fifteen guests escaped in their night clothes by sliding down the posts of the front porch.

The building was owned by O. S. Bryant, who carried $5,000 insurance. John Barrack, traveling salesman for the Carter Dry Goods Company, Louisville, lost $1,000 worth of samples; J. L. Goodman, traveling salesman for Harris Davis Company, Nashville, $500 worth of samples, and the Scottville Home Telephone Company, wires and booths, $100. The building was the oldest in Scottville.

RED CROSS SECOND WAR FUND CAMPAIGN.

Shortly after American's entrance into the world conflict the American Red Cross, through its War Council appointed by the President, asked of the American people one hundred million dollars as their first contribution to the War Fund. That War Fund had been decided upon as necessary to carry through the broad plans of European and American War Relief on the scale that their need justified.

The money contributed at that time will have been all expended by early this summer and the accounting of this expenditure, audited by the Government, has been given the widest publicity.

In order that this tremendous work of humanity may be carried on the President has designated the week of May 20, 1918, as Red Cross week, during which the public will be appealed to for another hundred million dollar contribution.

Every means will be taken during that week to inspire and stimulate the public to give and give generously to this great need. It is as much a matter of patriotism as the support of our navy and army. The local Chapters in every community will seek to canvass each individual. There will be the usual display and distribution of posters and informative literature. An advertising campaign for newspapers has been prepared and will be placed in the hands of all Chapters for underwriting in the local papers by the business interests of each locality.

PARIS BOY TO GET HONORS IN ATHLETICS.

Pullen, New York City; J. A. Brittain, Leadville, Col.; Craig Riddle, Lexington; Hiram T. Adair, Paris; Arthur Bastin and James Hedges, Lexington; W. Walker, Lexington, and Hall Henry, Dixon.

HOME PAPER FOR THE SOLDIERS

Realizing that the soldier boys are intensely interested in the news back home and believing that the home paper is the next best thing to a letter from home, we recently offered to send THE BOURBON NEWS free to any Bourbon county soldier to whom the paper is not already being sent by friends or relatives.

Quite a number have sent in soldiers' addresses and THE BOURBON NEWS will go to them regularly. We are glad of this opportunity to thus show our interest in the gallant young men in various branches of the service and we trust the home news will be a source of pleasure to them. We want the boys to consider the paper our weekly letter to them and shall depend upon each soldier to keep us posted as to any change in his address. Those going to France will be sent the paper as soon as their correct address is received.

The Price of Cotton is Soaring Higher, Ever Higher--But the Price of

Wirthmor Waists is Still the Same

It is a unique and economical merchandising plan that enables us to still sell these wonderful Wirthmor Waists at $1.00.

The price of cotton and cotton fabrics has advanced excessively—recently reaching the highest figure since civil war days, and still the price of WIRTHMOR WAISTS remains the same.

In these deservedly popular Blouses the materials used are just as good as ever; they'll wear as well; they'll launder as well; they're made as finely; and the STYLES are just as genteel and pretty as in the past.

Only the vast volume of WIRTHMOR sales, the many large economies of the WIRTHMOR PLAN, coupled with the forehanded purchase of material and a fixed purpose on the part of the retailer and maker to hold down price, accounts for these truly remarkable values.

BOURBON OWES REFORM SCHOOL SUM OF $86.66.

A special report on the House of Reform, at Greendale, in reference to the indebtedness of 81 counties to the State for the maintenance of inmates between the ages of 10 and 16 years, was filed with Governor Stanley by State Inspector and Examiner Nat B. Sewell.

In 1914 the General Assembly passed an act providing that when any county sends to the House of Reform a child between the ages of 10 and 16, the county shall pay for the maintenance of such child $100 annually unless the child so sentenced was indicted upon a felony charge.

The report shows that Bourbon county is indebted to the State under the provision specified above $86.66.

"SAUERKRAUT" TO BE CHANGED TO "LIBERTY CABBAGE."

Sauerkraut may be camouflaged under the name of Liberty Cabbage, if the Federal Food Board acts favorably on the recommendation of vegetable dealers, who assert that the pro-German stigma of the dish has been responsible for a falling off of 75 percent in consumption, since the United States entered the war.

The dealers told the Board that there is now enough sauerkraut in stock in New York City to supply a fair-sized German army. The Board, in taking the question under advisement, ordered the dealers to submit statistics showing the exact quantity of sauerkraut they have on hand.

CAUSE OF HEADACHE.

By knowing the cause, a disease may often be avoided. This is particularly true of headache. The most common cause of headache is a disordered stomach or constipation, which may be corrected by taking a few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets. Try it. Many others have obtained permanent relief by taking these Tablets. They are easy to take and mild and gentle in effect.

GIVES FERVENT "AMEN."

Prayer by Evangelist Bascomb Waters, at Hopkinsville, Ky., better known as "Hoptown." "O Lord, bless the President of the United States, the King of England and the President of France, but, if you will excuse us, Lord, to hell with the Kaiser." We believe the evangelist is in earnest about this, although his language is unusual. Anyway, if it is not blasphemous, we desire to record a fervent "Amen!"

THE WIDOW'S MITE.

He boarded a northbound traction car at Piqua, a broad shouldered, up-standing youth of 23 in soldier's uniform, enroute home for the week end. And he was proud and talkative. His voice boomed through the little smoking compartment, exuberant, boastful, perhaps, and eager. He was of the selective service.

One idea seemed dominant and comforting. "I've $15,000 insurance," he declared proudly. "I'm worth a heap more right now dead than alive. So if I never get back the little mother will be cared for; better maybe than if I'd stay at home. For I ain't just strong on work." Again his laugh boomed.

The widow Morris walked hesitatingly into the Second National Bank in a little up-street town and asked for President Jones. Her face was just a little older, just a little deeper lined. Under her eyes were the circles of weeping; in the quick clapping and unclapping of her fingers the clamor of over-wrought nerves. And her garb was just a little more somber.

"I've just got Tommy's insurance money," and her voice choked pitifully. "You know he died in France." Tears filled her eyes to overflowing. She turned away and sobbed at them helplessly with a worn little handkerchief, and slowly regained control of her feelings.

"He was all I had. I gave him to my country—not willingly, but as all I had to offer. And now he's gone. And this money—I can't take it from the government. Not when it needs it so badly. War took my father. War has taken my son. And now I want to give the government all I have left—my widow's mite—to help wipe war out the world forever. Will you get me liberty bonds for it?"

And had she been the Queen of his boyhood's dreams Banker Jones could have shown her no greater deference.

AN APPEAL FOR FARMERS TO TAKE AND TRAIN BOYS.

The time has come when we cannot be choosers, but must take the best we can get. This principle applies practically to all classes of people that are hardest hit by these conditions is the employer of labor, whether he be a manufacturer, a merchant or a farmer.

The farmer, no less than the employer of labor in the city, has felt the drain of labor owing to the war. The active young men upon whom chiefly the farm work falls must be replaced by some one if production of food stuffs and meats is kept up even to the normal of past years. But the demand is for more food, so we can help supply the other nations who are helping us to make the world safe for democracy.

There are 2,000,000 High School boys in this country. Several thousand of these are in our own State and have enrolled in the U. S. Boys Working Reserve. These boys are willing and anxious to do their bit in helping to serve their country. Thousands and thousands of these boys have already pledged themselves to go to any farm where they may be sent and will do their best to aid the farmer. In other States calls from the farmers for boys have been greater than the supply.

A few of these High School boys have had farm experience, but the majority of them have never been on a farm and consequently do not know the first principles of farming. However, they declare they are willing to learn. They say they expect sore hands, tired muscles and hot, long days when they get to the farms, but are "nerved" to do their part.

If the boys recognize that it is not play, but hard work, that they are undertaking and yet are willing to go, the farmer should be willing to take them and try them out. Further, the farmer should not expect too much from the boys, but should undertake to teach them how to work, with the idea of making them useful helpers not merely for this year, but for the years to come.

They must realize the longer the war lasts the less farm help they can get, because Uncle Sam must have soldiers, and, therefore, it is the farmers' patriotic duty to take these boys and make farmers out of them. Be patient with them, teach them, not only for what can be gotten out of them this season, but to make them worth more on the farm next year and the next. If the farmers will be patient and not expect too much from the boys this year, they will have a similar experience that the States of Indiana and Illinois are having this year—want more boys than they can get. BE PATIENT WITH THE BOYS!

Make your needs for these boys known to Prof. Clark, Enrolling Agent, at Paris High School, or Mr. Z. L. Wilcox, at the Y. M. C. A., County Director of the U. S. Boys' Working Reserve, or write C. A. Tevebaugh, Asst. Federal State Director, 345 Y. M. C. A. Building, Louisville, Ky.

THE MAY AMERICAN MAGAZINE

Mary Pickford, David Grayson, Charles P. Steinmetz, H. C. Witmer, Holworthy Hall and Corporal Holmes are some of the names that make the May American Magazine a top-notch. Holworthy Hall begins his new novel of love, adventure and the war called "The Man Nobody Knew." Charles P. Steinmetz, the great inventor and engineer, declares that the world belongs to the dissatisfied and he proves his point in his article. David Grayson, who everyone loves, expresses his opinion about the war and how out in the country, he feels about it. There is an article about Mary Pickford that will give you some news about her; and the real story of Corporal Holmes and how the war made a different man of him will stimulate and interest. H. C. Witmer has a funny story in this issue, and Max Rosen, the youthful violinist who has been startling the country, tells how he graduated from the slums and reached the top of his profession. L. M. Boomer, the great hotel man, tells what hotel men know about human beings, and the things they like to eat and do.

There are many other things in this issue that make it worth while. Stories by William Dudley Pelly and Alice Garland Steele, articles called "What Makes the Tired Business Man Tired," and "How I Cured Myself in a Dentist's Chair" and the interesting People and Family Money Department help to round out a fine number.

ABOUT RHEUMATISM.

Rheumatism causes more pain and suffering than any other disease, for the reason that it is the most common of all ills, and it is certainly gratifying to sufferers to know that there is a remedy that will afford relief, and make rest and sleep possible. It is called Chamberlain's Liniment.

The Government First

Tremendous as is the present activity in the marshaling of men, food and munitions for the conduct of the war, the placing of the Bell system unqualifiedly at the disposal of the government has relieved one paramount factor of preparedness.

Every American who wants to help win this war should bear in mind that private service must give way to government service should emergencies require that everything be subordinated to the telephone demands of the army, the navy and other representatives of the government.

So when the increased business of fall and winter is reflected in your telephone service by a slowing down and by more frequent "busy" reports, remember that we are using every means at our command to keep our service up to its usual standard. Every available position at our switchboard is occupied and it is difficult to secure additional positions because Uncle Sam's requirements have reduced the available supply of material to the point where manufacturers cannot make a definite promise of delivery.

Here's how you can help. Use the telephone only for necessary calls, particularly during the busy hours of the day. Be patient when there is a delay. Be cheerful to the operator and if you have trouble call "COMPLAINT."

We appreciate co-operation.

"Thinned Blood Means Health; While 'Watery' Blood Spells Sure Death."

Dr. Robert J. MacInalls, Noted Surgeon, Gives Interesting Lecture on Modern Methods of Treating "Spring Fever."

New York, May 6.—Speaking before an audience composed largely of nerve specialists and dietitians at the Waldorf here, Dr. Robt. J. MacInalls, the distinguished surgeon, laid particular stress upon the importance of keeping the blood in a healthy condition as a means of warding off disease; and called attention to the fact that many people, in an endeavor to stave off or relieve so-called "spring fever," gorge themselves with sulphur, calomel, sarsaparilla and similar concoctions, which not only thin the blood, but cause it to become "watery" and unhealthy, thus exposing themselves to the ravages of any disease which may beset them, and at the same time weakening and undermining their entire system. He has said in part:

"Very few people are cognizant of the importance of keeping the blood in a strong and healthy condition as a prophylaxis against disease, and it is the duty of the medical profession to instruct the public in this prime essential of good health."

"I am sorry to have to confess that there are members of our profession who, for the love of the almighty dollar, still keep their patients in ignorance on this most important subject; and still others, styling themselves physicians, who resort to the Black-Age doctrine of prescribing such nostrums as tend to weaken the blood, thus causing it to become 'watery,' and thereby super-inducing various forms of anaemia and general debility."

"This practice should be vigorously prosecuted, and only such remedies should be employed as will tend to strengthen, as well as thin the blood. A certain amount of both white and red corpuscles are prerequisite to good health and to properly ward off disease; thus to prescribe various forms of calomel, sarsaparilla, sulphur and similar medicaments is like prescribing salt and vinegar to the victim of obesity."

Acid Iron Mineral not only thins the blood, but strengthens and invigorates it. For those who suffer from the effects of thickened, heavy blood, coagulated and polluted with the waste matter of the winter's accumulation, A-I-M stands without a peer; for it not only thins and purifies the blood, but carries the various impurities out of the system—naturally and effectively. As a general "spring tonic" and as a prompt relief for that "tired feeling" and rundown condition so prevalent at this season, it remains the only natural, non-corrosive, fully assimilable and digestible iron known to medical science.

On the market over thirty years, and with thousands upon thousands of testimonials from physicians, lawyers, clergymen, pharmacists and laymen who testify to its merits, A-I-M is the only remedy on the market which is sold with the distinct understanding that its purchase price will be refunded if it fails to benefit in every possible degree. Reject all spurious imitations, which profit-seeking druggists try to foist upon you, and demand the original Acid Iron Mineral.

Sold in Paris by Brooks & Snapp Drug Co., and by good stores everywhere. (adv)

POPULARITY OF BLUE GRASS

Kentucky Soldiers, on Return March From Battle of Tippecanoe, Gathered Seed in Indiana.

The tradition that the Kentucky soldiers who fought at Tippecanoe took back with them the seed that has made blue grass famous in central Kentucky, has never been questioned or seemed to require authentic proof, declares a writer. Mrs. Levering says, in her "Authentic Indiana:"

"It was on the return march from the battle of Tippecanoe that the soldiers from Kentucky gathered the seed of the blue grass which they found growing in Indiana, and carried it home with them, thinking it was a superior variety because it satisfied the hunger of their horses so well that they would not eat corn. It flourished so well on the limestone soil of central Kentucky that it made that state famous." This statement was based on information obtained from early settlers of Indiana. Kentucky was not known as the blue grass state until many years after the battle of Tippecanoe.

As long as slavery existed, Kentucky, lying south of the Ohio river, was classed as a Southern state. It never was classed as a central Western or middle Western state along with Ohio and Indiana. In the census report of 1910, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin were classed as "East North Central states" and Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama and Mississippi as "East South Central states."

When Indiana was admitted to the Union, in 1816, it consisted of 13 counties, viz.: Wayne, Franklin, Dearborn, Switzerland, Jefferson, Clark, Washington, Harrison, Knox, Gibson, Posey, Warrick and Perry. In the subsequent creation of 79 counties out of these, making 92, the boundaries of the original 13 counties underwent material changes.

WIFE'S FEAR WAS AROUSED

Stranger's Inquiry About Hubby's Description Was Merely to Warn Against Unhealthy Coconut.

He entered the ladies' sitting room at the railway station, walked up to a woman whose husband had left the room about ten minutes previously, and calmly inquired: "Madam, your husband went out to see the river, didn't he?"

"Yes—why?" she asked, turning pale in an instant.

"He was a tall man, wasn't he?"

"He was," she replied, rising up and turning still paler.

"Had red hair?"

"He had. Oh, what has happened?"

"Weighed about 180 pounds?"

"Yes—yes! Where is he—where is my husband?" she exclaimed.

"Couldn't swim, could he?"

"He's drowned—my husband is drowned!" she wailed.

"Had a silver watch chain?" continued the stranger.

"Where is my husband? Where is the body?" she gasped.

"Do not get excited, madam. Did your husband have on a gray suit?"

"Yes. Oh, Thomas—my Thomas!"

"And lace-up boots?"

"Let me see him—let me see him!" she cried.

"Come this way, madam, but do not get excited. There is your husband across the street at that fruit-stand?"

"Why, yes, that's him; that—that's my husband!" she exclaimed joyfully.

"I thought you said he was drowned."

"No, madam, I did not. I saw him buying a coconut, and I believe it to be my duty to say to you that coconuts are not healthy at this season of the year."

The Emblem of France.

The fleur de lis is the emblem of France, and is believed to be the white-flowered Florentine Iris, the flower de luce. "What sayest thou, my fair flower de luce?" says the English king to the French princess in Shakespeare's play. The French have a pretty legend of their lily which tells that at the baptism of King Clovis, of the long and perfumed hair, a blue banner came fluttering down from heaven over which were sprinkled golden fleur de lis. From that time they appear on the arms of the country. They have a verb, "fleurdeliser," meaning to embroider scattered flowers over a fabric, or, as embroiderers say, to "pepper with flowers." Edward III borrowed the lilies of France after his war with that country and they were borne by England until the beginning of the nineteenth century.

Cock and Bull Story.

Cock fighting is still the national sport of the Dominicans, although it is declining in popularity. Under the national gambling laws cock fighting may be prohibited. It may, however, be licensed by the various municipalities, and it usually is, as it yields them a good revenue. While bull fighting is permitted in the Dominican republic, it has never been popular in this island. At long intervals a toreador comes here en route from Spain to Peru or Mexico, and a few bull fights are held in the various towns, but they do not attract a large attendance. There are no professional bull fighters among the Dominicans.—Commercial Reports.

TOO EASY WITH SPIES.

(New York Commercial.)

Federal and State Prosecutors say that existing laws do not provide suitable penalties for the destruction of munition works or for tampering with military supplies such as gas masks. To the layman such deeds are the work of secret enemy agents, spies or traitors and such persons are supposed to suffer death when caught. Our failure to deal with spies and traitors as other belligerents do has made bold these enemies within our gates who dream of rich rewards when the Kaiser takes this continent. Let us have martial law with drum-head court-martial and firing squads to execute sentences the next morning, rather than see our courts and other machinery of justice flouted by enemies who try to turn gas masks into death traps. American citizens are making many sacrifices, and they can afford to sacrifice the right to trial by civil courts on charges of treason and spying. Spies and traitors caught at American prisons, whose doors are open after the war is over, Maudlin sentiment and possibly the terms of peace will insure that.

Now that some fifteen or twenty million of us have the bond-buying habit, let's hope we stick to it.

When you can buy a Liberty Bond on the installment plan there's no excuse for your not having one.

BLARNEY CASTLE.

The ruins of old Blarney Castle are a few miles outside of Cork, surrounded by pleasant Irish fields and gorgeous hawthorn hedges. The huge square tower stands as firm and true now as in the days when old Cormac McCarthy ruled over the land of Munster. The old chieftain built his castle to withstand English guns and English diplomacy, and Blarney Castle has kept the trust.

The visitor to the ruins never fails to ask for the famous Blarney stone. The withered old guide looks him over carefully and leads him up a narrow winding stair to the top of the donjon tower. If the visitor is old and dignified he is then shown a small square stone near the wall's edge and is permitted to kiss the relic without much trouble. But if he is young and especially agile he is directed to a huge slab some feet below the level of the battlements. To kiss it he must be lowered by his feet over the tower's edge, never a very graceful process. But the feat once accomplished, if the old tradition be true, he is possessed forever of a glib and persuasive tongue and usually returns home to make a career in politics.

The tradition is that its remarkable power was granted the stone in return for some favor bestowed by Cormac upon an especially grateful saint in the old days when Ireland was full of such holy men and women. The wily chieftain made good use of his power in his own day, three times successfully matching his wits against the English.

Since old Cormac's day hundreds have visited the castle and kissed what they firmly believed to be the sacred stone. But the real Blarney Stone is not the one near the tower wall, but the old block with the inscription "Cormac the Brave caused me to be built—1446" to reach which one must hang by one's feet over the battlements.

MONEY'S PARAMOUNT MISSION

The present struggle is not National simply. It is international. It belongs to no one people. It belongs to all. It is a struggle between self-government and monarchical control. It is especially a contest between the highest type of civilization and a type which in certain respects has close affinities with half-civilization and with barbarism.

In such a struggle every element of strength, every ounce of weight counts, and counts mightily. In making the fight money is not simply, as the definition says, a standard of value and a medium of exchange. It is also a power unto victory. It means a step in the progress unto peace with victory.

were very appealing. The chapter realized about fifty dollars.The student body of the Graded School put on the pretty little threeact drama, entitled, "The Kindling of the Hearth Fires," at the opera house Friday evening to a large audience. The piece was good and well rendered, and all connected with the entertainment did their parts nicely. The piece was preceded by a number of short choruses by the school. The instrumental numbers were rendered between acts. We are sorry that space will not permit us calling attention to the various performers in the piece. The play was coached by Miss McGuire, principal of the school, and was well done.Mr. Joseph Andrew Miller, aged eighty-seven, one of Millersburg's most prominent citizens, died at his home at noon yesterday, after a protracted illness of general debility.
Mr. Miller's life was interwoven with the history of Millersburg, where he had resided all his longand useful life. He was a Confederate veteran, having served with distinction during the four years of the Civil War. The funeral will be held at the Methodist church tomorrow (Wednesday) afternoon. A more extended notice will be given in the next issue of THE NEWS.

SWINDLERS' TRICK TAKES MON- EY SENT TO SOLDIERS

Relatives and friends of several soldiers in army camps have been victimized by swindlers who wired or wrote for funds under soldiers' names.
In each instance it was requested that money be sent by wire having identification, or by mail to general delivery, the customary explanation being that the soldier had been discharged and would have no way of securing identification, nor of getting mail addressed to his company.The following is a typical telegram, sent to the father of a soldier in a southern camp:"Have been discharged. Coming home. Going to Atlanta through country to-night. Please wire me $50 at Atlanta so I may pay for uniform and come home direct. Wave identification as I am not known in Atlanta. Wire cash quick so I can get home to-morrow morning."Before being complied with, any request for money to be sent under such conditions should be verified by a letter or telegram to the commanding officer of the camp in which the man whose name is signed to the request is stationed.

ADDRESSES WILL AGAIN APPEAR IN CASUALTY LISTS.

The War Department will resume almost immediately the practice of giving addresses of American soldiers named in the casualty lists sent from France.The decision was made by President Wilson, to whom the public appealed when the addresses were ordered discontinued. The President took up the subject with Secretary Baker immediately after the Secretary's return from France.Publication of addresses was discontinued March 8. Explaining at the time why the order was issued,
the War Department said publication gave information to the enemy and also brought swarms of claim agents to harass relatives of men killed.The President took the subject up when the Committee on Public Information refused to handle the list on the grounds that the names without addresses were valueless for publication purposes.These new 4.25's Uncle Sam is putting out are about the longest range guns any war ever saw.Coming

COVINGTON TO HAVE PATRI- OTIC MEETING MAY 19

Covington, Ky., is planning a great patriotic meeting at the Latonia race track Sunday afternoon, May 19. This meeting will be under the auspices of the "Citizens' Patriotic League" of Covington, and it is the intention of the committee on arrangements to make this the largest public demonstration ever held in North Kentucky. Speakers of national reputation have been procured to address the gathering. Senator Wm. H.
King, of Utah; Gov. James M. Cox, of Ohio, and Edwin P. Morrow, of Kentucky, will be the speakers.Two military bands will give concerts. A mixed chorus of 300 voices will render patriotic songs.Every American, citizen and his family, all patriotic societies, fraternal orders, all civic organizations and the members of all churches of every denomination are urged to be present. Everyone is urged not only to come to this meeting, but to bring a flag is the announcement.

TRYING TO BEST CANTRILL

Congressman James Campbell Cantrill will have no opposition in his own party for re-election, but it is said that a young barrister to fortune and fame unknown, one E. N.
Casey, of Lexington, will be chosen by the Republicans to pit against him. He must be a very green and unsophisticated youth to permit himself to go up against such sure defeat as awaits him. He should have been warned by the fate of one R.
Lee Murphy and others who butted their heads against J. Campbell.Mr. Cantrill's unwavering support of President Wilson's plans and his splendid service in Congress entitles him to the support of every patriot and the leaders of the Republican party should see that he is returned unopposed.Doubtless the Lord's self-appointed partner, the Kaiser, would insist that his friends were doing a pious duty in crucifying those Belgian nuns.

SOLDIERS ABROAD OBSERVE MAY 12 AS MOTHER'S DAY

"Mother's Day"—a day on which every soldier of the American expeditionary forces, young and old, high and low, is expected to write home to mother—has been fixed for May 12. The idea originated with the Stars and Stripes, the official newspaper of the American forces in Europe, and was approved by headquarters, which is doing everything possible to help it along.The postoffice is rising to the occasion, and the Young Men's Christian Association has promised that on that date its huts will be stocked with an inexhaustible supply of writing paper. The censors have decided to work overtime, until midnight if necessary, so that the letters will be speeded to the United States without delay.The experience of the army postoffice has taught that the mothers come first in the soldiers' thoughts, and so has decided to make every possible effort that every mother in America whose son is in France shall receive tidings from her "boy." Thus the date especially set apart for the purpose.Mothers may expect their letters to begin arriving early in June. Soldiers in the front-line trenches will be given every opportunity to scribble
a few lines to their mothers, which will be hurried to the rear and rushed along to their destination.
All other business will be put aside
except that of fighting the Germans.
On that day the mothers will be uppermost in the minds of the soldiers.
The letters will be marked "Mother's Letter" on the envelopes and will be given preference over all other mail matter.

WITHOUT RIFLE AMERICAN KILLS FULL ARMED FOE.

Two interesting letters from Corporal Arthur C. Traylor, of Freeport, L. I., a member of the One Hundred and Sixty-fifth Infantry of the Rainbow Division, and one of the first American soldiers wounded in France, has reached this country.
One was to his father and the other to his sister, Mrs. Frederick Menke, of 930 St. Nicholas avenue.Young Traylor was wounded in February and his letters were written the middle of last month from the hospital where he is recovering. He gives an excellent idea of the spirit of the Americans in France. He wrote that although he had thirteen shrapnel wounds he was feeling pretty fair, and that he was even then counting the days before he would be able to get back in the trenches.In the letter to his sister Traylor tells of a hand-to-hand struggle he witnessed between a big six-foot lad from Ohio and a German. "In some way," Traylor wrote, "the Ohio boy lost his rifle in climbing out of a trench. A husky German was almost on top of him with his bayonet when he suddenly took off his helmet and struck it at the German's head. The Hun ducked and before he knew what had happened the big boy was on top of him. In no time at all he had that bayonet away from the German and he got his man."Corporal Traylor said both French and American surgeons had operated on him and that at the time he was writing they had extracted all but one piece of the shrapnel. He added they expected to remove that the next day.

92 CENTS AN HOUR EARNED BY GARDENERS IN OHIO.

One large manufacturing concern in Ohio provided gardens for its employees in 1817, and required them to keep an accurate record of the time spent working the gardens and the value of the crop grown.At the end of the season the results showed that the gardeners had received 92 cents an hour for their spare time spent in the gardens.Another large manufacturing concern in Illinois plowed up a prize 40-acre alfalfa field and divided it into garden plots for the use of its employees. The results obtained from this garden plot far exceeded the expectations of both the company and its employees.Manufacturers all over the country are providing gardens for their employees this year, according to reports to the United States Department of Agriculture.
